system revolves around cutting through enemy groups, and a combination of melee and ranged attacks that you equip on your character. Online synchronous multiplayer gameplay includes user actions, such as joining the game in a world where you can see the presence of others and directly connect with them. DUNGEONS The game includes a variety of dungeons, some of which feature traps, monster groups, and various events, and the main aspect of the game is to explore them and fight through the battles. Character levels are not tied to specific features, and different characters can receive levels simply by exploring and being with the monsters. Character growth is divided into two branches-strength and magic. Not only can you increase strength, but you can increase your magic too, so that you can learn new skills or easily dispel enemy status effects. ◆ The Main Character ◆ THE DUNGEON Welcome to the RPG where it's all about the choices! Choose your character's race, gender, and class, as well as the appearance, weapons, and skills you're going to equip. After that, you can freely customize your character as you wish. You can even increase your stats by using your skills and making use of things you find. ◆ ADVENTURE Choose what kind of adventure you'll

Community Spotlight: Anemone - Mugglehead

You may recall our recent Emperor and General spotlight on Morgassa, a Wayfinder and a guest of the Phoenix to The Downs.

The short version: this Toa of Wind is one tough bruiser, and not the least bit hard to tell. From the top of his head, his pairs' of plates rise up and over his hairline, all but shielding a large chunk of the top of his head, and in the back, two spikes jut all the way over his shoulder blade. The two larger spikes on the back are filled with toothy-looking barbs.

Morgassa is wearing what appears to be a skull-shaped piece of metal that covers a good portion of his chest, while he also appears to be wearing goggles on his forehead. It is an item that, suggested by the mask’s design, conceals either his eyes or
