I can't find anywhere in the website that shows how to do it. I already added a reference to Microsoft.VisualBasic.dll to my project. I've also created a config file and added it to my project (also under properties/Application). All I want to do is import a configuration file, like the one they created when you create the config file. A: There's a Convert to app.config wizard on this article I've joined the Aarhus Food Coop in order to buy food there. The produce in the Aarhus Food Coop is just fantastic. The prices for vegetables, meat and fish are very good and the service and quality of the food are equally good. I'm especially looking forward to the weekly organic food market, which just opened their market on the 15th of July 2016. To celebrate the opening of the organic food market, they had a party. This was a perfect place to meet people and tell them about my project. The party was held in the garden of the Aarhus Food Coop. There were food stands, seminars, a stand with raffle prizes and some music. At the end of the party, they let me sign up to become a member of the Aarhus Food Coop. But I was a bit unsure about being part of the Aarhus Food Coop. I didn't really trust it was good for the environment (well, the food will be), nor that the food was organic. As I'm planning a trip to Greece next year, I thought it would be interesting to buy the food I eat there. I'm still debating between selling my food at the
